

2020 Election Stolen & China Top Threat: CIA Whistleblower

In this interview The New American's Alex Newman, former CIA officer turned whistleblower Kevin Shipp argues that the 2020 election landslide for Trump was stolen with help from COVID and mail-in ballots. The threat from Communist China is enormous and existential, warned Shipp, who was in counter-intelligence and said Beijing was the top espionage danger in the world. Multiple members of Congress are compromised, as well as major U.S. companies, he said. However, Shipp argued that claims by prominent former military officials and others that the CIA was involved in the election theft are false. Shipp also called on Americans to turn back to God for help and guidance in this unprecedented time.
