In this episode of “2A For Today,” we chat with Chad Caton, founder and host of “I’m Fired Up!!” Chad is an American Patriot, 2A activist, political type, and entertainer who has partnered up with Jerry Wayne, the famous Detroit millwright who was berated by Joe Biden on the floor of an auto plant in a, since, viral video. Chad and Jerry became fast friends in the fight for liberty and together began building the Jerry Wayne - AR14. Chad took some time out for us during a convention called “Rock the Red” in Greenville, SC where he was scheduled to speak. Chad’s passion, strength, and energy are infectious in this interview as he shares a little about his life, his family, his contribution to the Jerry Wayne - AR14 build, and how he has fought to preserve the blessings of liberty in Horry County, South Carolina, and America.
