Did Russia Fund Ads for Black Lives Matter?

In this video, The New American's correspondent Alex Newman discusses various reports alleging that the Russian government was buying Black Lives Matter ads to divide America and inflame racial tensions. While the sources reporting the news are not reliable—both CNN and the Washington Post are widely viewed today as fake news outlets—the story may well be correct. Alex goes into some of the history of the Kremlin trying to foment racial division and hatred as part of the communist/globalist divide and conquer tactic.
