Eerie Parallels: Revolution in South Africa vs US

In this interview with The New American magazine's Alex Newman, South African engineer, historian and author Dr. Harry Booyens explains the many eerie parallels between the communist takeover of South Africa and the ongoing effort to bring down America. The historical parallels between the Afrikaner/Boer nation and Americans go back centuries, as documented in Booyens' book AmaBhulu: The Birth and Death of the Second America. Booyens predicted the assault on statues in America many years ago, because he knew what had happened in his native South Africa. Today, Christian descendants of Europeans in South Africa are a small, endangered minority in the nation that their forefathers built. Americans will be next if this continues.
