How the UN Covers up Atrocities by Persecuting Whistleblowers

The United Nations has become a cesspool of crime and even atrocities, including the systematic rape of children by UN “peace” troops, The New American’s Foreign Correspondent Alex Newman explains in this video. We know this because of brave whistleblowers such as Anders Kompass, Emma Reilly, Rasna Warah, Peter Gallo, Miranda Brown, and Povl Bang-Jensen, among others, who have put their careers and sometimes even their lives on the line to blow the whistle. And yet, instead of rewarding these brave truth tellers, the UN has a long history of retaliating against, terrorizing, persecuting, and attacking them. It is critical that civilized nations put a stop to this UN war on whistleblowers.
