

Is this the Location of an Ancient Biblical Temple Treasure?

In this interview with The New American magazine's Senior Editor Alex Newman, investigator and researcher Jim Barfield explains how he used the Copper Scroll to locate a massive treasure associated with the First Temple of the Jews described in the Bible. Barfield, who leads the "Copper Scroll Project," has so far not been given permission to dig at the site. This is due to political sensitivities involving Arabs and the Jewish State of Israel. However, Barfield and others who have examined the evidence are sure they know just where the treasure is. The implications of this are huge!
