Are Exceptions Ever Truly Necessary in Cases of Abortion?

In this episode of Unsilenced, Heather Hobbs, pro-life speaker with Save the 1, discusses what are referred to as “exceptions” to the prohibition of abortion: cases of rape; the disability of the child in the womb; and threats to the life of the mother. She presents logical arguments and abundant evidence showing that these are not legitimate reasons to terminate a pregnancy and do not justify a mother’s decision to kill her unborn child.
