At US-Mexico Border, Rep. Mark Finchem Stands Up for the Defenseless

In this episode of Unsilenced, host Heather Hobbs interviews Arizona State Representative Mark Finchem in the border town of McAllen, Texas. Behind them can be seen a huge gap in the incomplete border fence where the cartels — along with the sex slaves and children they exploit — can easily cross. Finchem describes the human tragedy, which is exacerbated by Biden’s open-border policy, but he does more than that. He also calls upon Americans “to rise up in a peaceful manner and take control of their government.”
