Biden's advanced cognitive deterioration hit the world stage last week during the events honoring the 80th anniversary of D-Day. Biden's octogenarian antics both amused and horrified viewers worldwide, who are concerned that America's role as a world leader has come to a bumbling, fumbling end. By contrast with his presidential predecessors, such as Reagan 40 years ago, Biden's performance was a sorry spectacle indeed.

Also in this episode:

21:57 | So-called far right parties, especially the National Rally led by Marine Le Pen in France, made impressive gains in the European Parliament.

38:31 | Assuming the allegations have merit, where are the criminal referrals against members of Biden Family — including the Big Guy — for money laundering, corruption, etc.?

41:45 | Boston Celtics Coach Joe Mazzulla is asked a race-baiting question, and his short response leaves the room in silence.

47:16 | Senior Editor William F. Jasper warns about Deep State machinations to radicalize the Right.
