Joe Biden chose the day millions of American Christians celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ — Easter Sunday — to promote Transgender Day of Visibility. The decision sparked much backlash, and deservedly so. More importantly, it served as yet another reminder that the Biden administration hates Christianity and is on a mission to erase it from public life. We discuss why this matters to all Americans.

Also in this episode:

@ 11:40 | Republicans are on course to making history by losing the House in the middle of a Congress. Is it any coincidence this is happening just as genuine opposition to the Uniparty is finally rising?

@ 26:15 | Classical education is growing around the country, including in major blue cities and states.

@ 36:40 | We issue a call to action to American faith leaders.
