The Evans family just secured a major win for parental rights in Idaho, with the state Supreme Court ruling that a law purporting to require grandparent visitation is unconstitutional. In this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman, the parents and the attorney who filed an amicus brief in their case, ParentsUSA Executive Director David DeLugas, explain the victory, and its significance in the battle for parental rights nationwide. ParentsUSA is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit relying on donations and membership to fund its work for parents across the USA.
