Between Marxist ideology, COVID mandates, Black Lives Matters, DEI, “climate” hysteria, and other absurdities, the U.S. military was going so far off the rails that many experts wondered if it could even win wars anymore.

On this episode of Behind The Deep State with The New American magazine’s Alex Newman, Col. Ron Scott, PhD, USAF (Ret.), leader of Stand Together Against Racism and Radicalism in the Services (STARRS), knows the military better than most. And he is pleased with the direction things are going.

But more must be done, Col. Scott explained. The radicalism was years in the making, and it will take a concerted effort to push it back. Listen to this critical interview to learn more and to find out how you can help.
