America's northern neighbors may lose what's left of their speech rights. Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and his leftist government goons are floating a bill likely designed to criminalize speech that isn't woke or leftist. Disguised as a bill intended to protect children, people rendered guilty of fomenting "hate" or "extremism" could be severely punished.

Also in this episode:

@ 12:33 | Trump can't come up with the half a billion dollars needed to pay the civil-fraud judgment leveled against him by Judge Engoron. Will all this lawfare make him more dependent on the donor class now?

@ 23:05 | Another domino in the electric vehicle scam has fallen, as the chief of a major car-rental company has resigned over an EV-related decision;

@ 32:40 | John Birch Society Vice President Wayne Morrow discusses a legislator scorecard project he worked on with Canadian patriots.
