A Look Into the July 4th Issue of The New American!

Christian Gomez and Constance McDaniel discuss the latest issue of The New American. This issue focuses on July 4th, and more importantly what it stands for – our independence as a nation.

Our nation's sovereignty has been constantly under attack, particularly by the United Nations. Amongst the UN, another person of interest in this issue is Irina Bokova, whom of which is seeming to be set as the successor to Ban Ki-moon, current Secretary-General of the UN.
