Christian Nationalism or Christian Patriotism? William Federer Explains

The media-driven demonization campaign against “Christian nationalism” is seeking to undermine Christianity and patriotism while working to exclude Christians from civic life, warned historian William Federer in this episode of Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine’s Alex Newman. Federer, a renowned expert in history and author of many books, also offers key information on U.S. history and the role of the Bible and faith in the formation and development of the United States.
