Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF) is actively fighting to put Good News Clubs in public schools to teach children about the Bible, prayer, and Christianity, said Moises Esteves, CEF Executive Vice President, to Alex Newman on Conversations that Matter. When a Good News Club thrives in a school, Esteves explained, Satanist clubs founded by Lucien Greaves, the co-founder of The Satanic Temple, weasel their way into schools and try to use scare tactics to make parents and students fearful so that they throw out both clubs altogether. Alex and Moises discuss the positive effects that Christian clubs have on students and why they are necessary to combat darkness.
