Churches vs. Deep State?

Churches and Christian leaders are increasingly standing up against the Deep State and its anti-biblical behavior, potentially marking a sea change in the United States, explains host Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State. The Southern Baptist Convention, the nation's largest Protestant denomination, recently approved a resolution calling for state and local governments to nullify the unbiblical and unconstitutional Supreme Court's Roe v Wade decision by abolishing abortion and treating it as murder. Pastor John MacArthur recently explained that governments doing Satan's bidding—protecting evil and punishing good—forfeit their authority and legitimacy. Christians recently released the Warrenton Declaration calling for more resistance to the evil COVID decrees. And Catholic priests are increasingly standing up and resisting lockdowns and efforts to shut churches. This may be just the beginning, says Newman, as the churches and religious leaders take their rightful spot on the front lines of the battle against Deep State evil.
