SHARM EL SHEIKH, EGYPT — The planet is doomed from man-made climate change if Americans and other taxpayers and consumers in “developed countries” do not hand over huge amounts of money to help “youth” activists save the world from carbon dioxide, said an anonymous “youth” climate leader in this interview with The New American magazine at the United Nations COP27 “Climate Change” summit. People in America who do not believe the narrative reject it because they are “floating in their privileges,” he said.
