The communist regime enslaving Cuba, put in place by the globalist Deep State establishment, is actively fomenting chaos on American soil and around the world, warned renowned Cuban-American scholar and author Frank De Varona in this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine's Alex Newman. De Varona invaded Cuba at age 17 in the Bay of Pigs invasion to help free his homeland, but was betrayed and then captured and tortured for two years.
