The truth is out there, and some members of Congress are trying to get it. Congress held a series of hearings last week in which they heard witnesses testify about unidentified flying objects and “non-human biologics,” insanely destructive border policies, and government-imposed social-media censorship. In this episode, we look at what happened during these hearings.

In the second half of the show, Gary Benoit discusses “The Freedom Index” with Christian Gomez and Peter Rykowski of The John Birch Society’s legislative and research team, and Steve Bonta joins Gary for another installment in the ongoing series on principles. Today they discuss why separation of powers is so essential to limited government.
