Congresswoman Harriet Hageman (R-Wyo.) discusses her work in the 119th Congress and optimism about President Trump's return to office. The New American's Christian Gomez asks Representative Hageman about getting out of the United Nations, her pro-constitutional bills to protect Americans from the weaponization of government, and the dangers of an Article V constitutional convention (Con-Con), which certain members of the Wyoming Legislature are wanting their state to apply to Congress to call. Rep. Hageman elaborates about the importance of the Constitution and the threats to it from the UN, EPA, big government, and those seeking a convention to propose changes to it.
