The Joe Biden administration may be plotting to allow illegal immigrants to vote using executive orders and decrees, warned True The Vote founder Catherine Engelbrecht in this interview with The New American Senior Editor Alex Newman. Engelbrecht, a leading figure in the fight for election integrity, also warned that the administration was putting pressure on states to effectively allow more non-eligible individuals to register to vote, further straining the already embattled election and voting system. However, she offers ideas on what can be done to stop it all.
