Dave Brat on the State of the Economy

The New American's Steve Bonta gets former three-term Virginia congressman and Liberty University Vice Provost Dave Bratt's take on debt, inflation, and other threats to our economy. Bratt rose to fame as the first person ever to "primary" a sitting House Majority Leader (Eric Cantor). He's a solid conservative and devout Christian with a PhD in economics, and has a strong interest in the relationship between Christian morality and the workings of the free market.
