Comments from top globalists at the World Economic Forum in Davos last week show that the agenda to build a “New World Order” is still marching onwards, even if tactics are shifting, explains The New American magazine’s Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State.

Newman, who was joined by TNA contributor Andrew Muller, highlights an apparent effort to shift from the “uni-polar world order” led by the United States toward a Chinese Communist Party-centric “multi-polar” world order. Numerous Western globalists including Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney have made their support for this clear.

While comments from Trump, key U.S. officials, and other leaders such as Argentina’s Javier Milei put the globalist movement on defense, it is clear that globalism is far from dead. Americans must understand the threat to resist it effectively.
