The United Nations and Democrats across America, along with some Republicans, are working to use “school choice” tax-funding for home education and private schools to bring it all under the control of government, warned The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman. Arizona, recently touted as the “model” for school choice, is exhibit A, but far from alone. Under a Democrat plan there, everyone taking government money must submit to government standards, testing, and more. The rest of the jurisdictions that adopted government funding for “choice” are likely to follow, as UNESCO called for in a report.
