Debate is raging among some corners of Christianity and even some conservatives about whether Donald Trump is worthy of their support, with some even suggesting he is part of the “Swamp” or the “Deep State.” However, as The New American senior editor Alex Newman explains in this episode of Behind The Deep State, Trump became a one-man wrecking ball against the architecture of global governance and has been relentlessly targeted by the Deep State since he announced his run for president in 2015. The evidence speaks for itself.
