The United Nations annual climate summit in Belem, Brazil, wrapped up last week, and the verdict is in: Globalists demand TRILLIONS of dollars to combat so-called “man-made climate change.” And they will get it with or without President Trump in the picture.

The New American’s Alex Newman and Andrew Muller were on the ground reporting on the summit from Brazil, and in this explosive episode of Behind The Deep State for The New American, they review the most pertinent stories they uncovered and share the highlights from the final agreement all member governments consented to adopt.
