Joe Biden won Wisconsin in 2020 by about 20,000 votes — or did he? Many Wisconsinites didn't (and still don't) believe it, prompting the Legislature to hire former state Supreme Court Justice Michael Gableman to look into the election. Gableman released two reports partly detailing how out-of-state Democratic operatives came in through Mark Zuckerberg-financed private groups and took over election administration in select cities. In this interview, he discusses the report, dispels lies told about the security of election machines, and reveals fraud in elder-care facilities.
