The cat is out of the bag on the scheme to impose a “North American Union” on the United States, Mexico, and Canada — a plan by diabolical elitists to subvert freedom and sovereignty — explains Geopolitics & Empire host and longtime academic Hrvoje Morić in this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman. The plan is at the core of globalism and all major political parties embrace it, explained Moric, who lives in Mexico and taught the future elite at one of the nation’s most prestigious universities. Morić also offers insight on the broader geopolitical implications as the world moves toward regional governance at the expense of nations, noting that the European Union is the model globally. Already, the process is well underway in North America, too.
