Distorted Sex Education Is Destroying the Children

Stop destroying the children! In this important conversation with sex education expert Audrey Werner (featured in The Mind Polluters; author of 10 Tips on How NOT to Talk to Your Kids About Sex), parents will hear the uncomfortable, disturbing truth about today's sex education, taught in both public and private schools, to children as young as four years old.

Werner has pledged to fight for a return to biblical principles and to expose the danger of so-called education that diametrically opposes faith-based values instilled in the home. She discusses with The New American her passion to awaken “the remnant” and to bring awareness, with a call to action, to the sexual “science” that demands to change a child’s life forever.

Werner, who founded the nonprofit Matthew XVIII, and has worked for decades to uncover demonic sex-ed teachings in and outside of the United States, including Uganda, effectively halting the curriculum from entering the classrooms there, was recently featured in the new documentary The Mind Polluters, by filmmakers Mark and Amber Archer. Despite Vimeo and YouTube banning the film’s distribution, Werner explains that lawmakers in Texas are taking notice and taking action to rid the schools of this curricula meant to destroy irreversibly a child’s development.
