The Department of “Justice” is refusing to hand over the audio recordings of special counsel Robert Hur’s interview with Joe Biden. House Judiciary Committee Republicans have dubbed the DOJ’s excuse an “incomprehensibly absurd position,” and the House passed resolutions to hold U.S. Attorney General Merrick Garland in contempt. TNA editorial members discuss what’s at the center of the DOJ’s latest stunt.

Also in this episode:

@ 19:23 | The butcher of Iran died in a helicopter crash. Will this change anything?

@ 30:17 | Pop culture is castigating Kansas City Chiefs kicker Harrison Butker for saying very religious things during a commencement speech at a religious school.

@ 50:41 | Republican Kentucky Rep. Thomas Massie recently introduced a bill to end the Federal Reserve.
