Donald Trump's Friends Reveal Who He Really Is

Despite nearly a decade of adversarial media, lawfare, and repeated attempts on his life, President Donald Trump is more committed now to saving America than ever before, revealed the president's closest friends, allies, and colleagues at the premiere of the new film, The Man You Don't Know.

The film, set to release in theaters on October 25, 2024, offers an intimate view into the life of the president, showcasing interviews from his family, classmates, business partners, employees, and closest friends.

From Peter Ticktin, a lawyer and former Trump classmate at the New York Military Academy, to Frank Stallone, Hollywood actor, author, and brother of Sylvester Stallone, the sentiment was clear: Donald Trump is a loyal, generous, and committed family man who's mission is to resurrect the American dream.
