Economy on Recession Watch After Unemployment, Jobs Data Crater in July

This morning's July jobs report produced some very bad news for Bidenomics boosters, and even triggered an official recession warning. Markets have swooned in response. This newest economic data could reshape the election season—again. Also on today's show:

The mastermind of the 9-11 attacks, Khalid Sheikh Muhammed, reached a plea deal with the Biden Administration, after many years of legal wrangling. We discuss the contrast between this administration's dealings with mass murderers and its treatment of Trump and J6ers.

After years of waiting, three Americans imprisoned in Russia have been released—in exchange for several hardened Russian criminals in Western custody.
