Former Rep. Steve King: Carbon Capture Pipelines Violate 5th Amendment

At the Constitutional Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association conference in Las Vegas, Nevada, former Representative Steve King (R-IA), whom Phyllis Schlafly labeled as one of her favorite congressmen, caught up with Alex Newman to raise awareness about the downfalls of a carbon capture pipeline and how it can threaten Americans' property rights.

Former Representative King, a businessman and founder of the Kiron Business Association, argues that the Supreme Court is America's best bet for getting rid of carbon capture pipelines, citing that the pipeline placement can violate citizens' 5th Amendment rights.
