Goesser's Testimony - Gunned Down in a Gun Free Shooting Gallery

This week on 2A For Today we are going to be listening to the powerful testimony of Nikki Goesser, executive director of the Crime Prevention Research Center. Her husband was gunned down in a gun free zone. Ms. Goesser testified before the Michigan state Senate Judiciary Committee. She was a concealed carry license holder at the time, but her and her husband were made victims in a local restaurant due to the unintended, but inevitable consequences of gun control laws.
