Yesterday afternoon, the House GOP failed to impeach DHS Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas in yet another embarrassing debacle showing how incapable the Grand Old Party is at anything other than talking a good game. We discuss the Republicans who blocked the vote and their stated reasons for it.

Other stories in this episode:

@ 11:16 | A three-judge panel ruled that Donald Trump was not protected by presidential immunity in his D.C. election case;

@ 21:44 | American lawmakers are raising the alarm bells about the World Health Organization's subversive Pandemic Treaty.

@ 33:27 | The CEO of The John Birch Society discusses what the American people can do about representatives who don't represent them.
