A broader understanding of the Bible and a deeper biblical worldview by self-proclaimed Christians can and must be critical parts of turning the political system around in America, nationally syndicated radio host Stacy Washington tells The New American magazine's Alex Newman in this interview for Conversations That Matter.

According to Washington, who goes by "Stacy on the Right" and recently released the book "Eternally Cancel Proof," the Bible has answers to all of the contemporary questions and controversies in government and life. And Christians need to stop compartmentalizing their faith, instead walking out their beliefs and principles in politics, family, and government.
