J.D. Vance Skewers The Ruling Class

In his acceptance speech at the Republican National Convention, Trump's running mate had one overarching message: when the Trump-Vance administration moves into the White House, the ruling class's globalist policies will be on the chopping block. Vance's speech took aim at the North American Trade Agreement (NAFTA), suicidal immigration and energy policies, perpetual wars, and overseas manufacturing. It's time for all of that to change and put America first, Vance declared.
