LINDELL CYBER SYMPOSIUM: Election Integrity Concerns Nothing New, Says Sen. Colbeck

Concerns about election fraud and irregularities are nothing new, especially in Michigan, explained former Senator Patrick Colbeck in this interview with The New American magazine's Alex Newman at Mike Lindell's Cyber Symposium. Colbeck, who was serving in the Michigan Senate at the time, said he first became interested in this problem when significant issues emerged during a recount requested by far-left Green presidential candidate Jill Stein. Colbeck also addresses ways that Americans can once again have trust in the integrity of elections.
