Manufacturing Enemies: Deep State Terror & ISIS - Part 4

By supporting jihadists and known al Qaeda terrorists in from Libya to Syria and worldwide, the Deep State and its machine in Washington, D.C., directly and deliberately created the Islamic State (ISIS) and poured fuel on the fires of global Islamic terrorism, explains The New American Senior Editor Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State. Ironically, the Obama administration's support for known jihadists and terror leaders was done to support efforts to overthrow regimes previously supported by the U.S. government. But as U.S. government and military documents make clear, the creation of the Islamic State was deliberate U.S. policy.
