There will be a lot more jihadist terrorist attacks across the United States and the Western world thanks to suicidal border policies by leftwing governments such as the Biden administration inviting in millions of “new voters” from Islamic nations, warned Act for America chief and best-selling author Brigitte Gabriel in this interview on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine’s Alex Newman. Gabriel, who was born in Lebanon when it was still a Christian nation, warned that there are likely hundreds of thousands of al Qaeda operatives and ISIS-inspired jihadists in Europe and America. And Western-backed jihadists have now taken over Syria with disastrous potential consequences for minorities there and across the Middle East. However, there is reason for hope in the U.S. as the incoming Trump administration and Border Czar Tom Homan work quickly to deport dangerous illegals who may be plotting attacks. On a related note, Gabriel drew a comparison between what is happening with the Islamization of once-Christian Europe with what happened to her once-Christian homeland. Everyone must get involved to preserve liberty and Judeo-Christian civilization, she added.
