In three short years, the Biden administration has flooded the nation with millions of “migrants,” incentivized wars around the world, and weaponized the DOJ against common Americans for the simple crime of being conservative. Another term like this will likely plunge this nation into its darkest period ever. Today we discuss the upcoming Iowa caucus and the GOP candidates’ views on religion, agriculture, and each other.

In the second half of the show, we discuss the combustible situation in the Far East between China and Taiwan.
