Young Man Finds Occult Spirituality Indoctrination in Government Schools and Takes Action

Children across America are being taught satanic ideology through “spirituality education,” said Brody Petska in this episode of Conversations That Matter with Alex Newman for The New American.

Petska, the manager of the Teacher Coalition for Freedom in Education, who got interested in the subject as a result of his own negative experience in government schools, argues that children are being groomed to hate God, morality, and America through the instruction of satanic occultism in the classroom, and it has been going on for generations with little pushback or outcry.

Petska shares receipts for his claims by highlighting the connection between the United Nations, which focuses on education in their Sustainable Development Goals, and Alice Bailey, the founder of the Lucifer Publishing Company.

Ultimately, Petska advises that parents conduct their own research to understand the education that their children are receiving and consider non-governmental alternatives for the instruction of their youth.
