Far-left Mexican President Andres Manuel Lopez Obrador is calling for a European Union-style union for North America, admitting openly what globalists have been plotting in the shadows for decades, explains The New American magazine Senior Editor Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State. The architecture is already in place, he notes. But now, the mask is coming off as every nation in the world gets sucked into a regional regime. Ultimately, globalist strategists have explained that these regional orders will be brought together under a New World Order.
