Corrupt elections are one of the most serious threats Americans face. The most consequential election of our lifetime is quickly approaching, and what happens this November may determine the fate of our nation and whether we'll be a free or a subjugated people. Professor David Clements is the creator and producer of the movie Let My People Go, and an election expert. In this captivating interview, the former prosecutor and university instructor discusses how our elections are rigged, the forces behind the manipulation, why they want corrupt elections, and what Americans need to do this coming November.
