Through the deliberate dumbing down and conditioning of children, the Deep State has radicalized youth to hate America's Christian, constitutional, and moral heritage to create global citizens, ready to play their role as a cog in the machine of a collectivist society, explains The New American magazine's Alex Newman in this episode of Behind The Deep State.

In addition to sexualizing children and teaching Marxist ideology under the guise of frameworks like Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) and Social-Emotional Learning (SEL), public schools are academically failing kids, as studies show that two-thirds of American eighth graders are not proficient in any subject. This is by design, says Newman, the author of the new book, Indoctrinating Our Children to Death: Government Schools' War on Faith, Family & Freedom—And How to Stop It.

Ultimately, despite public schools' absolute failure to educate children, under the U.S. Constitution, the federal government has no power under Article I, Section VIII, to insert itself into the education of children, something America's founders believed was the sole duty of parents. If Americans wish to save not only their children but also their nation, there simply must be a complete exodus from public schools.
