There needs to be a mass exodus from government schools as part of the effort to restore and preserve freedom in the United States, mom and show host Quisha King—a heavyweight in Florida politics—told The New American magazine’s Alex Newman in this episode of Conversations That Matter. King, who made national headlines by calling for a mass exodus and works with the group Moms for America, also revealed that she had an abortion—with all the pain that entails. She also blasts Critical Race Theory and other tools being used by the radical Left to divide and destroy America.
