The lower taxes, less federal spending, limited government wing of the Republican party is finally starting to make some noise! Senator Tom Cotton and a host of Senate Republicans have introduced the RIFLE Act. IS it a step in the right direction?

Do you know what they call doing the same thing over and over again and expecting a different result? Yeah, well apply that to gun control laws. The Governor of Maryland, however, is proud of the insanity. Will adding more gun control laws to a state with some of the strictest gun control laws in the country fix what ails Baltimore? Not likely.

And our 2A For Today Modern Militiaman spotlight San Antonio, Texas where a couple of undocumented immigrants crossed the line and not just the border. When a man wanted a little peace and quiet he got attacked. Fortunately, our hero took Joe Biden seriously.

You're watching 2A For Today. My name is Zoe.
