The Republican Party is infested with RINOs who need to be cleaned out if America is to be rescued, said homeschool dad and chiropractor Drew-Montez Clark in this interview with The New American magazine. Clark, who said you could not pay him enough to put his children in a government school, said children were being indoctrinated in “public education” against freedom. He is running for Congress to stop the tyranny, protect the border, and secure America’s future, he said.
