A Seattle school board discontinued its gifted program in district schools because it had too many white and Asian students. This reflects Soviet and Maoist-style government-run “education” — why is it happening in America?

Also in this episode:

@ 11:37 | While Oregon is backtracking on absurd legislation it passed three years ago, Wisconsin's governor just vetoed legislation protecting girls' sports.

@ 22:54 | Republicans are on track to making history by losing the House in the middle of a Congress. Is it coincidence this is happening just as genuine opposition to the uniparty is finally rising?

@ 34:02 | America's foreign policy should be that of noninterventionism, which isn't the same thing as isolationism. Steve Bonta and Gary Benoit explain the difference.
